COMMISSION,
13 Defendant.

Case No. 2:19-cv-00698-JCM-VCF

ORDER

15 Presently before the court is defendant United States Federal Trade Commission's 16 ("FTC") motion to extend. (ECF No. 24). Plaintiffs American Technology Services, LLC;
17 Compliance Consultants, LLC; Unified Data Services, LLC; and Richard Zeitlin (collectively
18 "plaintiffs") filed a response. (ECF No. 25).

19 The FTC requests that the court extend the deadline to file a reply in support of the FTC's
20 motion to dismiss (ECF No. 23) by fifteen days. (ECF No. 24). The FTC represents that it
21 cannot timely file a reply due to imminent briefing deadlines in two other cases and staffing 22 constraints. Id. Plaintiffs argue that a fifteen-day extension would be prejudicial because the 23 FTC intends to move to stay discovery pending its motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 25). Plaintiffs
24 contend that a seven-day extension would be sufficient and would not needlessly delay
25 discovery. Id.

26 The parties have yet to commence discovery and it is unlikely that granting FTC's
27 request will substantially delay adjudication of its motion to dismiss. Further, the FTC's staff
28 constraints and workload constitute good cause for an extension. Therefore, the court will grant

1 the FTC's motion to extend.

2 Accordingly,

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the FTC's motion to 4 extend (ECF No. 24) be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED.

5 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the FTC shall have until August 2, 2019, to file a reply
6 in support of its motion to dismiss.

7 DATED THIS 16th day of July 2019.
